SOUTHAMPTON FRESH AIR HOME
DECORATORS-DESIGNERS-DEALERS
SALE AND AUCTION BENEFIT

Dear Friends,

For 124 years The Southampton Fresh Air Home has provided a unique and caring residential camping experience for children with physical disabilities. Our fundraising efforts ensure that no child is turned away because of financial need. SFAH strives to serve as many physically disabled and economically disadvantaged children and young adults as possible. Our programs present a unique opportunity for these youngsters to have a sleep-away camp experience and at the same time, give their families a rest from the intensive daily care a child with special needs requires.

SFAH provides a wide range of activities including basketball, sailing, tennis, bicycling, relays, swimming, iPads, computers, gardening, arts, crafts, photography, cooking, music, dancing and off-site trips. Seasonal weekends and day trips are offered year-round. Life Skill Lab workshops are woven into all our programs. SFAH gives our children incredible memories to last a lifetime while also planting the seed for a future of independent living.

The success of this year's event must be credited to our distinguished team of D-D-D leaders. They have created a truly unique and magical experience!

SFAH graciously acknowledges B & N Moving and Storage, Citarella, East End Blueprint, Fowler's Garden Center, Grace Presbyterian Church, Hamptons Magazine/Modern Luxury, Cindy Massey, Serafina Restaurant Group, the Town of Southampton and the Tuckahoe Common School District.

Special appreciation to the local businesses that beautify our event with florals: Dutch Petals, Eastland Nursery & Farms, Fowler's Garden Center, Green Thumb Farm Stand, and Halsey Farm and Nursery.

We hope you enjoy our gift bag sponsored by Dunmore Beach Club. Special thanks to Peter Thomas Roth, Hilma, Girl Scout Emma Sommer and Isolde O'Hanlon.

A special thank you to our live auctioneer, Stephan Keszler.

The Decorators-Designers-Dealers Sale and Auction has been one of the highlights of the Hamptons' summer social season since 1992. We are proud and extremely grateful to everyone for their extraordinary support. As we welcome another season, we open our doors and our hearts to the entire community of residents, visitors, guests, patrons, donors and volunteers who come together in support of our mission. From all of us and especially from the children we serve -- a heartfelt thank you!

Frank Wurzer

Commissioned Portrait of Your Family

Value: $14,000
Donated by: Frank Wurzer

German artist Frank Wurzer is proudly donating a commissioned portrait of your family from his celebrated series THE GREAT FAMILY PORTRAIT. Known for his refined technique and emotional depth, Wurzer creates timeless portraits that capture the unique spirit and presence of each family.

The portrait will be created this summer in the family’s home, where Wurzer works in a personalized, relaxed atmosphere—favoring authenticity over poses, and quiet joy over forced smiles.

Born in 1962 in Hanover, Germany, Wurzer studied under Prof. Tony Cragg at the Kunstakademie Düsseldorf and later served as his assistant in the 1990s. He now lives and works in Berlin, Düsseldorf, and New York.

His award-winning work is held in private collections throughout Europe and the United States, including by prominent collectors in New York and the Hamptons.

Deirdre Imus

Hemingway, Cowboy of the Seas. 48" x 48"

Value: $15,000

Donated by: Deirdre Imus

Oil, mixed media, heavy coarse paste on gallery wrapped canvas stretched on American pine.

Deirdre Imus is a self taught, Texas based artist. The death of her husband has brought her back to her childhood of painting, dreaming and creating a life on the canvas. Since 2021 she has created a technique she calls Stranding: "strand of emotion painting" where the feeling is painted; not the horse, not the cowboy but the sustaining provocative emotional substance.

"I'm not interested in painting the horse as it actually appears. I'm merely painting the attitude, emotion, remnant." The existential purpose and meaning of life is asked in each of her paintings. She's interested in the human condition and it's arc through history with the horse... the connected divine quality that we possess carrying us through sorrow, suffering, love and relationships that make and break us.

Michael Dweck

The End: Montauk

Value: $25,000

Donated by: Michaela and Stephan Keszler

Ten (10) gelatin silver and chromogenic prints, 11 x 14 in. each. Edition of 50, signed and numbered. Published by Ditch Plains Press, 2015

Michael Dweck is an American visual artist, photographer, and filmmaker whose work explores themes of identity, community, and cultural fragility. His images often capture subcultures on the edge of disappearance, reflecting the tension between tradition and modernity.

This portfolio is part of Dweck's iconic The End: Montauk, N.Y. series, a lyrical chronicle of the East End's fading surf culture. Shot in the early 2000s, the images document Montauk's mythic enclave of surfers, artists, and locals-rendered with the intimacy of someone who lived it. Each print is signed, stamped, and housed in a handmade clothbound clamshell box, released in conjunction with the 10th anniversary edition of the landmark book.
